Twin Flames & Freedom

As the accelerated influx of light envelopes the planet, everything that has held us enslaved in consciousness is being squeezed out to the surface of our awareness.

Separation consciousness, (the belief we were separate from God,) created Duality; a condition which provided a tremendous growth opportunity as we learned to wield our creative powers through free will. We've played every role as we've experienced the cause and effect of our thoughts, feelings, words and deeds; be they destructive or constructive. But, the time has come to graduate from this school and return to our true identity as the holograms of the Source.

Underlying the experience of duality have been constant patterns of enslavement accompanied by a deep sense of abandonment. As we forgot our Source and the fact that we were part of the Source, with all the same inherent powers of creation, we began to search to meet our needs from without. The fall in vibration and consciousness kept us in survival mode, constantly searching for a SOURCE; a source of nourishment and nurturing, a source of security, a source of power, a source of material requirements and desires, and above all, a source of love.

We have taken all these things second hand, both individually and collectively, by projecting the fulfillment of our needs onto someone or something else. We take our nourishment (the light) stepped down from the plants and the animals. We have a history of conquering others and forcing them to submit to our wills, taking their natural resources, their physical and intellectual inventions, and/or their life force in an effort to create a sense of security for ourselves. We even use the hunt and conquer method of obtaining a relationship in which we hope to have the other meet our most intimate needs in love. And, the irony of our belief in LACK has been that as we have enslaved others, we have ourselves become enslaved to our addiction to having our needs met from without. All the while, we have been blinded to our ability to create absolutely anything and everything we require from within!

In 1954 a new era was initiated – one in which mankind will ultimately return to true freedom, including freedom from his mis-creations, his belief in separation from the Source, and his belief that he lives life in a constant state of lack on every level.

This brings us to your true identity as a Twin Flame being.

You may have originally been drawn to the Twin Flame information as you sought love and intimacy from without. Nonetheless, the impetus for the conscious union with your complementary energy form is bringing you to a new plane of understanding about the next level of the holy relationship: the balanced and joined energies of the Divine Feminine and Divine Masculine that is the atomic generator of love. (Not love as an emotional source of food, but love – the substance of all things; the composite make-up of everything that exists both in the material and spirit planes.)

Moreover, you've never been separate from your Source and you've never been separate from your Twin Flame, for you carry that complementary energy within you always!

Working with your Twin Flame energy from within not only accesses the Creational Matrix, it also begins to create a consistent resonance in your being that begins to magnetically draw the mirror image of itself from without.

This allows us to see exactly where we are on our pathway back to wholeness. It will not only be mirrored in relationship with a Beloved, but also through every person, condition, place and thing that enters our individual universe.

This Holy relationship is a reflection of the Source; the Mother/Father God principle of which you are a hologram. It is the creative Source of all life, and as such, there is nothing that cannot be created within the matrix of this sacred union of energies in the Twin Flame Heart Womb. It cannot be stressed enough that this union represents the ultimate FREEDOM and should be sought with every fiber of your being. This is not to be sought as another Person outside of yourself, but the full balanced energy of the Divine Feminine and Masculine principles within. Another person can only REFLECT BACK TO YOU WHAT YOU ARE!!!!!!

The only thing created in the Twin Flame Heart Womb is MORE LOVE. That love is given form through the Thought and Will. As we begin to step over the threshold of remembrance of our true identity, we will experience freedom beyond imagination in every area of our lives.

I invite you to explore this in depth. You can access this information either through my work or through other's works, but if you have felt magnetically attracted to my work, your higher self is conditioning you for a quantum leap in consciousness. Step boldly to the door and push it open.

If you wish to explore the subject of Twin Flames, Twin Souls and Soul Mates further, you can access my full course at <http://www.twinflametruelove.com/twinflame-soul-mates.html>

If you're already a full-blown initiate of this information and are looking for tools to help you learn how to access and utilize the Twin Flame union from within, you can obtain both a brief education and a guided meditation to get you up and running:
